

Reflection Activity: Listening for Call in Today's World

Begin by centering yourself with prayer or silence... Then write about or draw a picture of...

The world in which you live
... consider values, needs, and aspirations.

Your hopes for the world
...a world that reflects your ideals and values.

Where you fit in the world
...consider the work that brings you joy and connects with your hopes for the world.

